An Introduction to Suicide Prevention for Black and African American Communities

This presentation, created by and for Black people, is designed to reduce cultural stigma, foster conversations about mental health, and raise awareness of suicide prevention for people in Black and African American communities. The program is grounded in research and is developed and delivered by trained presenters from the Black and African American communities.

Participants will learn common risk factors and warning signs in Black and African American communities, as well as how to keep ourselves, our loved ones and those in our community safe.
